

JUNE WINE TASTING CLASS

Owner of Casa Leal, respected specialist Portuguese Wine Importer and close friend, Miguel Leal will be tutoring the following class at The Kensington Wine Rooms (rearranged from May):

Saturday 23rd June 17h, The Wines of Portugal

“In a world of increased standardization, Portugal shines like a beacon of individuality and independence”. Oz Clarke

Portugal is a treasure trove of characterful wines with a profound sense of origin, and produces some of the Iberian Peninsula's best value offerings. We will taste wines made mainly from native grapes, in both the traditional and more modern styles. A great insight into a wine region that is still under-rated.

Miguel is a great talker and has a real insight into this fascinating country. This will certainly be one worth taking an hour out of your early afternoon!

The cost for a place on any of the above classes is £20. Tickets can be purchased at the bar or by calling 0207 727 8142. Alternatively email us at enquiries@thekensingtonwinerooms.com. Classes last about an hour.
